

2006 SEBA Atlanta All-Star Shootout Event Review

Updated October 4, 2006

(Atlanta, GA)

The 2006 SEBA Atlanta All-Star Shootout held this past Saturday at Oglethorpe University was a complete success. The event, which was at full capacity with over 100 players, featured talented prospects from throughout Georgia, as well as players from Florida, Alabama, and Mississippi. College programs from throughout the Southeast were in attendance throughout the day to evaluate prospective recruits.

The Shootout featured a full day of basketball action. The event began with all players participating in fundamental drills stations conducted by some of Georgia's top high school coaches. Following the skill stations, the players in attendance were treated to a terrific guest speech by Veteran NBA Coach Dick Helm. Coach Helm's talk focused on self discipline, goal setting, and accountability. Next, the players competed in three (3) full court 5-on-5 scrimmage games with their respective teams throughout the afternoon and early evening. The final event of the day was the various Underclassman and Senior All-Star games.

We want to extend thanks to all of the High School and AAU coaches throughout Georgia and beyond who helped support the event. Additionally, we want to send a special thanks to Coach Joe Goydish (Walton High), Roger Kvam (Cherokee High), Coach Joe Dix and Coach Davenport (East Hall High), Don Hurlburt (Etowah High), and Gerald Alford (Georgia Ballers AAU) for their time and efforts in working with the players as well as Coach Phil Ponder and the Oglethorpe University Basketball program for their support.
